

Step by step to our industrial oven. We make it possible. Get a part of our team!

For more than 65 years, we have been committed to designing and building top of the line industrial ovens that perfectly suit our customers' needs. We are eager to accept new challenging projects across industries, and to contribute to the development of meaningful product innovations by providing our customers with powerful ovens that last for a lifetime.

Our engineers and craftsmen embody this philosophy into their daily work while being driven by enthusiasm, creativity and pioneering spirit.

To increase the new customer business in different European countries we search for highly skilled

Sales Representatives (m/f/d)

Field of activity

Sales of DBK Industrial Ovens (Chamber ovens, continuous ovens, drawer loading ovens)

Acquiring new customers and keep contact to customer base

Negotiate sales contracts

Customer care

Organizational support for service, local commissioning and spare parts business

Your profile

Appropriate knowledge of and contacts to industrial ovens branch

Sales experience in the industrial ovens branch or adjoining branches

Competent skills of the sales region's language and in addition to that german or english

We offer

Very attractive sales commission scheme

Support by a competent and experienced internal sales team in terms of sales, technology and logistics

Shallow hierarchies and short communication channels in a medium-sized company

We make it possible. Get a part of our team and send your application. We are looking forward to hearing from you!

DBK David + Baader GmbH | Human Resources | Nordring 26 | 76761 Rülzheim | Fon +49 (0) 7272 7704 10 | bewerbungen@dbk-group.com | www.dbk-group.com